

“Believers in the church should see themselves as a missionary family, whose family business is making and training disciples” (Erik Raymond).

I. The Basis of the Missionary Family

II. The Enemy of a Missionary Family

III. The Sustainment of a Missionary Family

IV. The Practice of a Missionary Family

Applications/Challenges:

A. Acknowledge weakness in the task of evangelism

B. Recommit to the task of evangelism

C. Unite around the task of evangelism

D. Take practical steps to faithfulness in the task of evangelism

Raymond: "What would change about your life if you did your current job as a missionary in another country? What changes would you make if you had been sent to a foreign country, and given a job, a house and the mandate to be a missionary and reach those people?"